UNITED STATES COURT OF VETERANS APPEALS

Misc. No. 5-92

IN RE:

RULES GOVERNING COMPLAINTS OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND DISABILITY

Before NEBEKER, Chief Judge, and KRAMER, FARLEY, MANKIN, HOLDAWAY, IVERS, and STEINBERG, Associate Judges.

ORDER

Pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 7253(g) and consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 2071(b) and (e), the Court has determined that there is an immediate need for rules governing complaints of judicial misconduct and disability. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the attached Rules Governing Complaints of Judicial Misconduct and Disability are hereby adopted as interim rules effective immediately and applicable to complaints made on or after August 6, 1991, and to all complaints pending in the Court as of that date. It is further ORDERED that public comment on these rules is invited. Such comment must be submitted to the Clerk of the Court, United States Court of Veterans Appeals, 625 Indiana Avenue, NW, Suite 900, Washington, DC 20004-2950 not later than January 22, 1993.

DATED: NOV 23 1992

BY THE COURT:

FRANK Q. NEBEKER Chief Judge

Jack Helseker

APPENDIX:	Complaint Form

Preface to the Rules

On August 6, 1991, Public Law 102-82, § 3, made the provisions of section 372(c) of title 28 of the United States Code applicable to this Court, by adding a new subsection (g) to section 7253 of title 38 of the Code. On November 4, 1992, Public Law 102-585, § 801, amended the new subsection (g) by adding provisions for review by the Judicial Conference of the United States and authorizing the Court, acting as a judicial council, to pay witness fees/allowances and to reimburse reasonable expenses of judges in certain circumstances.

Section 372(c), made applicable to the Court by virtue of section 7253(g)(1), provides a way for any person to complain about a federal judge who the person believes "has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts" or "is unable to discharge all the duties of office by reason of mental or physical disability." It also permits the judicial councils of the federal circuits and other affected federal courts to adopt rules for the consideration of these complaints. These Rules have been adopted under that authority.

Complaints are filed with the Clerk of the Court on a form that has been developed for that purpose. Each complaint is referred first to the Chief Judge of the Court, who decides whether the complaint raises an issue that should be investigated. (If the complaint is about the Chief Judge, another judge will make this decision; see Rule 18(f).)

The Chief Judge will dismiss a complaint if it does not properly raise a problem that is appropriate for consideration under section 372(c). The Chief Judge may also conclude the complaint proceeding if the problem has been corrected or if intervening events have made action on the complaint unnecessary. If the complaint is not disposed of in either of these two ways, the Chief Judge will appoint a special committee to investigate the complaint. The special committee makes its report to the judicial council of the Court, which decides what action, if any, should be taken. The judicial council is a body that consists of all judges of the Court except for any judge whose actions are the subject of a pending investigation or subsequent proceeding pursuant to a complaint under these Rules. The Chief Judge may also appoint a special master to carry out investigations and make recommendations to the Chief Judge. Finally, recourse may be had to the Judicial Conference of the United States.

This Preface and the ensuing Rules, adopted by the Court on October 21, 1992, as interim and proposed final rules were derived from the Illustrative Rules Governing Complaints of Judicial Misconduct and Disability, proposed by the Judicial Conference of the United States Committee to Review Circuit Council Conduct and Disability Orders.

INTERIM AND PROPOSED FINAL RULES OF THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE UNITED STATES COURT OF VETERANS APPEALS GOVERNING COMPLAINTS OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND DISABILITY

Chapter I: Filing a Complaint

RULE 1. WHEN TO USE THE COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

- (a) Purpose of the procedure. The purpose of the complaint procedure is to improve the administration of justice in the Court by taking action when judges have engaged in conduct that does not meet the standards expected of federal judicial officers or are physically or mentally unable to perform their duties. The law's purpose is essentially forward-looking and not punitive. The emphasis is on correction of conditions that interfere with the proper administration of justice in the Court.
- (b) What may be complained about. The law authorizes complaints about judges who have "engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts" or who are "unable to discharge all the duties of office by reason of mental or physical disability". A judge who is the subject of a complaint under these Rules is referred to herein as the "judge complained about".

"Conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts" is not a precise term. It includes such things as use of the judge's office to obtain special treatment for friends and relatives, acceptance of bribes, improperly engaging in discussions about cases with lawyers or parties to such cases in the absence of representatives of opposing parties, and other abuses of judicial office. It does not include making wrong decisions--even very wrong decisions--in cases. Also, there is a rebuttable presumption that it does not include actions of a judge that are in accordance with advice, relied upon by the judge, from the Judicial Conference of the United States' Committee on the Codes of Judicial Conduct. The law provides that a complaint may be dismissed if it is "directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling."

"Mental or physical disability" may include temporary conditions as well as permanent disability.

(c) Who may be complained about. This complaint procedure applies only to judges of the Court. Complaints about other officials of the Court should be made to their supervisors in the Court. If such a complaint cannot be satisfactorily resolved at lower levels, it may be referred to the Chief Judge. The Clerk of the Court, whose address is 625 Indiana Avenue, Suite 900, Washington, DC 20004-2950, and whose telephone number is (202) 501-5980, is sometimes able to provide assistance in resolving such complaints.

- (d) Time for filing complaints. A complaint may be filed at any time. However, complaints should be filed promptly. A complaint may be dismissed if it is filed so long after the events in question that the delay will make fair consideration of the matter impossible. A complaint may also be dismissed if it does not indicate the existence of a current problem with the administration of the business of the Court.
- (e) Limitations on use of the procedure. The complaint procedure may not be used to provide a means of obtaining review of a judge's decision or ruling in a case. A motion for reconsideration or review, under Rule 35 of the Court's Rules of Practice and Procedure, may be used for that purpose in appropriate circumstances. The complaint procedure may not be used to seek disqualification of a judge from sitting on a particular case. A motion for disqualification, under Rule 27 of the Court's Rules of Practice and Procedure, may be used for that purpose. Also, the complaint procedure may not be used to force a ruling on a particular motion or other matter that has been before the judge too long. A petition for mandamus, under Rule 21 of the Court's Rules of Practice and Procedure, may be used for that purpose in appropriate circumstances.

RULE 2. HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT

- (a) Form. Complaints should be made on the official form for filing complaints, which is reproduced in the Appendix to these Rules. Forms may be obtained by writing or telephoning the Clerk of the Court (see Rule 1(c) for address and telephone number). Forms may be picked up in person at the office of the Clerk.
- (b) Statement of facts. A statement should be attached to the complaint form, setting forth with particularity the facts on which the claim of misconduct or disability is based. The statement should not be longer than five pages (five sides), and the paper size should not be larger than the paper on which the form is printed. Normally, the statement of facts will include--
 - (1) a statement of what occurred;
 - (2) the time and place of the occurrence or occurrences; and
 - (3) any other information that would assist an investigator in checking the facts, such as the presence of a court reporter or other witness and their names and addresses.
- (c) Legibility. Complaints should be typewritten if possible. If not typewritten, they must be legible.
- (d) Submission of documents. Documents such as excerpts from transcripts may be submitted as evidence of the behavior complained about; if they are, the statement of facts should refer to the specific pages in the documents on which relevant material appears.

- (e) Number of copies. If the complaint is about only one judge of the Court, three copies of the complaint form, of the statement of facts, and of any documents submitted must be filed. If the complaint is about more than one judge, in addition to the three copies, enough copies must be filed to provide one for each judge complained about in excess of one.
- (f) Signature and oath. The form must be signed, and the truth of the statements verified in writing under oath. As an alternative to taking an oath, the complainant may declare under penalty of perjury that the statements are true. The complainant's address must also be provided.
- (g) Anonymous complaints. Anonymous complaints are not handled under these Rules. However, anonymous complaints received by the Clerk will be forwarded to the Chief Judge for such action as the Chief Judge considers appropriate. See Rules 18 and 20.
 - (h) Where to file. Complaints should be sent to Clerk, United States Court of Veterans Appeals 625 Indiana Avenue, NW, Suite 900 Washington, DC 20004-2950.

The envelope should be marked "CONFIDENTIAL: Complaint of Misconduct" or "CONFIDENTIAL: Complaint of Disability." The name of the judge complained about should not appear on the envelope.

- (i) No fee required. There is no filing fee for filing complaints of misconduct or disability.
- (j) Chief Judge's authority to initiate complaint. In the interest of effective and expeditious administration of the business of the Court and on the basis of information available to the Chief Judge, the Chief Judge may, by written order stating reasons therefor, identify a complaint as authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(1) and thereby dispense with the filing of a written complaint. In such event, the Chief Judge will not automatically be considered a complainant and, subject to the second sentence of Rule 18(a), will perform all functions assigned to the Chief Judge under these Rules for the determination of complaints filed by a complainant.

RULE 3. ACTION BY CLERK OF COURT UPON RECEIPT OF COMPLAINT

(a) Receipt of complaint in proper form. Upon receipt of a complaint against a judge filed in proper form under these Rules, the Clerk of the Court will open a file, assign a docket number, and acknowledge receipt of the complaint. The Clerk will promptly send copies of the complaint to the Chief Judge (or the judge authorized to act as Chief Judge under Rule 18(f)) and will provide a copy (and obtain a receipt therefor) to each judge complained about. The original of the complaint will be retained by the Clerk.

Upon the issuance of an order by the Chief Judge identifying a complaint under Rule 2(j), the Clerk will thereafter expeditiously process such complaint as otherwise provided by these Rules.

- (b) Receipt of complaint about official other than judge of the Court. If the Clerk receives a complaint about an official other than a judge, the Clerk will not accept the complaint for filing and will advise the complainant in writing of the procedure for processing such complaints.
- (c) Receipt of complaint about judge and another official. If a complaint is received about a judge and another official, the Clerk will accept the complaint for filing only with regard to the judge, and will advise the complainant accordingly.
- (d) Receipt of complaint not in proper form. If the Clerk receives a complaint against a judge that uses the complaint form but does not comply with the requirements of Rule 2, the Clerk will normally not accept the complaint for filing and will advise the complainant of the appropriate procedures. If a complaint against a judge is received in letter form, the Clerk will not accept the letter for filing as a complaint, will advise the writer of the right to file a formal complaint under these Rules, and will enclose a copy of these Rules and the accompanying forms.

Chapter II: Review by Chief Judge of a Complaint

RULE 4. REVIEW BY CHIEF JUDGE

(a) Purpose of Chief Judge's review. When a complaint in proper form is sent to the Chief Judge by the Clerk of the Court, the Chief Judge will review the complaint to determine whether it should be (1) dismissed, (2) concluded on the ground that corrective action has been taken, (3) concluded because intervening events have made action on the complaint no longer necessary, (4) referred to a special master, or (5) referred to a special committee.

(b) Inquiry by Chief Judge.

(1) In determining what action to take, the Chief Judge may conduct a limited inquiry for the purpose of determining (A) whether appropriate corrective action has been or can be taken without the necessity for a formal investigation, (B) whether intervening events have made action on the complaint unnecessary, and (C) whether the facts stated in the complaint are either plainly untrue or are incapable of being established through investigation. For this purpose, the Chief Judge may request the judge complained about to file a written response to the complaint. The Chief Judge may also communicate orally or in writing with the complainant, the judge complained about, and other people who may have knowledge of of the matter, and may review any transcripts or other relevant documents. The Chief Judge will not undertake to make findings of fact about any matter that is reasonably in dispute.

- (2) In conducting an inquiry under this rule, the Chief Judge may appoint a person of pertinent experience and qualification (such as a nonsitting or retired judge) as a special master to conduct an investigation and make recommendations to the Chief Judge.
- (c) Dismissal. A complaint will be dismissed if the Chief Judge concludes--
- (1) that the claimed conduct, even if the claim is true, is not "conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts" and does not indicate a mental or physical disability resulting in inability to discharge the duties of office;
- (2) that the complaint is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling;
- (3) that the complaint is frivolous, a term that includes making charges that are wholly unsupported; or
- (4) that, under 28 U.S.C. § 372(c), the complaint is otherwise not appropriate for consideration.
- (d) Corrective action. The complaint proceeding will be concluded if the Chief Judge determines that appropriate action has been taken to remedy the problem raised by the complaint or that action on the complaint is no longer necessary because of intervening events.
- (e) Appointment of special committee. If the complaint is not dismissed or concluded, the Chief Judge, except as provided in subparagraph (b)(2) of this rule, will promptly appoint a special committee, constituted as provided in Rule 9, to investigate the complaint and make recommendations to the judicial council. However, ordinarily a special committee will not be appointed until the judge complained about has been invited to respond to the complaint and has been allowed a reasonable time to do so. In the discretion of the Chief Judge, separate complaints may be joined and assigned to a single special committee; similarly, a single complaint about more than one judge may be severed and more than one special committee appointed.

(f) Notice of Chief Judge's action.

- (1) If the Chief Judge issues an order dismissing the complaint or concluding the proceeding on the basis of corrective action taken or because intervening events have made action on the complaint unnecessary, the Chief Judge will prepare a supporting memorandum that sets forth the allegations of the complaint and the reasons for the disposition. The memorandum will not include the name of the complainant or of the judge complained about. The order and the supporting memorandum will be provided by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, to the complainant and the judge complained about. The complainant will be notified of the right to petition the judicial council for review of the decision and of the deadline for filing a petition.
- (2) If a special committee is appointed, the Chief Judge will notify by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, the complainant and the judge complained about that the matter has been referred, and will inform them of the membership of the committee.
- (g) Public availability of Chief Judge's decision. Materials related to the Chief Judge's decision will be made public at the time and in the manner set forth in Rule 17.
- (h) Report to judicial council. The Chief Judge will from time to time report to the judicial council on actions taken under this Rule.

Chapter III: Review of Chief Judge's Disposition of Complaint

RULE 5. PETITION FOR REVIEW OF CHIEF JUDGE'S DISPOSITION

If the Chief Judge dismisses a complaint or concludes the proceeding on the ground that corrective action has been taken or that intervening events have made action unnecessary, a petition for review may be addressed to the judicial council by a complainant or the judge complained about. The judicial council is a body that consists of all judges of the Court except for any judge whose actions are the subject of a pending investigation or subsequent proceeding pursuant to a complaint under these Rules. The judicial council may affirm the order of the Chief Judge, return the matter to the Chief Judge for further action, or, in exceptional cases, take other appropriate action.

RULE 6. HOW TO PETITION FOR REVIEW OF A DISPOSITION BY CHIEF JUDGE

- (a) Time.
- (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, a petition for review must be received in the office of the Clerk of the Court within 30 days of the date of the Clerk's letter to the complainant transmitting the Chief Judge's order.
- (2) When the complainant is located outside any state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands, 30 additional days will be added to the period prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.
- (b) Form. A petition should be in the form of a letter, addressed to the Clerk of the Court, beginning "I hereby petition the judicial council for review of the Chief Judge's order of [date] " There is no need to enclose a copy of the original complaint.
- (c) Legibility. Petitions should be typewritten if possible. If not typewritten, they must be legible.
 - (d) Number of copies. Only an original is required.
- (e) Statement of grounds for petition. The letter should set forth a brief statement of the reasons why the petitioner believes that the Chief Judge should not have dismissed the complaint or concluded the proceeding. It should not repeat the complaint; the complaint will be made available to members of the judicial council considering the petition. The petition should be limited to five pages (five sides), on paper no larger than $8\frac{1}{2}$ " by 11", with no appendix or attachment.
 - (f) Signature. The letter must be signed.
 - (g) Where to file. Petition letters should be sent to

Clerk of the Court United States Court of Veterans Appeals 625 Indiana Avenue, NW, Suite 900 Washington, DC 20004-2950

The envelope should be marked "CONFIDENTIAL: Misconduct Petition" or "CONFIDENTIAL: Disability Petition." The name of the judge complained about should not appear on the envelope.

(h) No fee required. There is no fee for filing a petition under this procedure.

RULE 7. ACTION BY CLERK OF COURT UPON RECEIPT OF PETITION FOR REVIEW

- (a) Receipt of timely petition in proper form. Upon receipt of a petition for review filed within the time allowed and in proper form under these Rules, the Clerk of the Court will acknowledge receipt of the petition. The Clerk will promptly provide each member of the judicial council, except for any member disqualified under Rule 18, copies of (1) the complaint form and statement of facts, (2) any response filed by the judge complained about, (3) any record of information received by the Chief Judge in connection with the Chief Judge's consideration of the complaint, (4) the Chief Judge's order disposing of the complaint, (5) any memorandum in support of the Chief Judge's order, (6) the petition for review, (7) any other documents in the files of the Clerk that appear to be relevant and material to the petition, (8) a list of any documents in the Clerk's files that are not being sent because they are not considered relevant and material, and (9) a written ballot that conforms with Rule 8(a). The Clerk will also provide, by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, the same materials, except for the ballot, to the judge complained about, except that materials previously provided may be omitted.
- (b) Receipt of untimely petition. The Clerk will refuse to accept a petition that is received after the deadline set forth in Rule 6(a).
- (c) Receipt of timely petition not in proper form. Upon receipt of a petition filed within the time allowed but not in proper form under these Rules (including a document that is ambiguous about whether a petition for review is intended), the Clerk will acknowledge receipt of the petition, call the petitioner's attention to the deficiencies, and give the petitioner the opportunity to correct the deficiencies within fifteen days of the date of the Clerk's letter or within the original deadline for filing the petition, whichever is later. If the deficiencies are corrected within the time allowed, the Clerk will proceed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Rule. If the deficiencies are not corrected, the Clerk will reject the petition.

RULE 8. REVIEW BY JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CHIEF JUDGE'S ORDER

(a) Written ballot. Each member of the judicial council to whom a ballot was provided will return a signed ballot, or otherwise communicate the member's vote, to the Clerk of the Court. The ballot form will provide opportunities to vote to (1) affirm the Chief Judge's disposition, or (2) place the petition on the agenda of a meeting of the judicial council. The form will also provide an opportunity for members to indicate that they have disqualified themselves from participating in consideration of the petition.

Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, votes will be tabulated when all members of the judicial council to whom ballots were provided have either voted or indicated that they are disqualified. After 20 days from the date the petition and related materials were provided to members of the judicial council, votes may be tabulated if they have been cast by at least two-thirds of the members to whom ballots were provided. Members who have disqualified themselves will be treated for this purpose as if ballots had not been provided to them.

If all of the votes cast should be for affirmance, the Chief Judge's order will be affirmed. If any of the members votes to place the petition on the agenda of a council meeting, that will be done.

- (b) Availability of documents. Upon request, the Clerk will make available to any member of the judicial council or to the judge complained about any document from the files that was not sent to the council members pursuant to Rule 7(a).
- (c) Vote at meeting of judicial council. If a petition is placed on the agenda of a meeting of the judicial council for a vote on whether to affirm the Chief Judge's action under Rule 4, council action may be taken by a majority of the members present and voting.

(d) Rights of judge complained about.

- (1) At any time after the filing of a petition for review by a complainant, the judge complained about may file a written response with the Clerk. The Clerk will promptly distribute copies of the response to each member of the judicial council who is not disqualified, to the Chief Judge (if not disqualified), and to the complainant. The judge complained about may not communicate with council members individually about the matter, either orally or in writing.
- (2) The judge complained about will be provided with copies of any communications that may be addressed to the members of the judicial council by the complainant.

(e) Notice of council decision.

- (1) The order of the judicial council, together with any accompanying memorandum in support of the order, will be provided by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, to the complainant and the judge complained about.
- (2) If the decision is unfavorable to the complainant, the complainant will be notified that the law provides for no further review of the decision.
- (3) A memorandum supporting a council order will not include the name of the complainant or the judge complained about. If the order of the council affirms the Chief Judge's disposition, a supporting memorandum will be prepared only if the judicial council concludes that there is a need to supplement the Chief Judge's explanation.

(f) Public availability of council decision. Materials related to the council's decision will be made public at the time and in the manner set forth in Rule 17.

Chapter IV: Investigation and Recommendation by Special Committee

RULE 9. APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

- (a) Membership. A special committee appointed pursuant to Rule 4(e) will consist of the Chief Judge and two associate judges.
- (b) Presiding officer. At the time of appointing the committee, the Chief Judge will designate one of its members (who may be the Chief Judge) as the presiding officer. When designating another member of the committee as the presiding officer, the Chief Judge may also delegate to such member the authority to direct the Clerk of the Court to issue subpoenas related to proceedings of the committee.

(c) [Reserved]

- (d) Provision of documents. The Chief Judge will certify to each other member of the committee copies of (1) the complaint form and statement of facts, and (2) any other documents on file pertaining to the complaint (or to that portion of the complaint referred to the special committee).
- (e) Continuing qualification of committee members. A member of a special committee who was qualified at the time of appointment may continue to serve on the committee even though the member relinquishes the position of Chief Judge or associate judge, as the case may be, but only if the member continues to hold office as a senior judge.
- (f) Inability of committee member to complete service. In the event that a member of a special committee can no longer serve because of death, disability, disqualification, resignation, retirement from office, or other reason, the Chief Judge will determine whether to appoint a replacement member. However, no special committee appointed under these Rules will function with only a single member, and the quorum and voting requirements for a two-member committee will be applied as if the committee had three members.

RULE 10. CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATION

(a) Extent and methods to be determined by committee. Each special committee will determine the extent of the investigation and the methods of conducting it that are appropriate in the light of the allegations of the complaint. If, in the course of the investigation, the committee develops reason to believe that the judge may have engaged in misconduct that is beyond the scope of the complaint, the committee may, with written notice by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, to the judge complained about, expand the scope of the investigation to encompass such misconduct.

- (b) Criminal matters. In the event that the complaint alleges criminal conduct on the part of a judge, or in the event that the committee becomes aware of possible criminal conduct, the committee will consult with the appropriate prosecuting authorities, to the extent permitted by 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(14), in an effort to avoid compromising any criminal investigation. However, the committee will make its own determination about the timing of its activities, having in mind the importance of ensuring the proper administration of the business of the Court.
- (c) Staff. The committee may arrange for staff assistance in the conduct of the investigation. It may use existing staff of the Court or may arrange, through the Clerk of the Court, for the hiring of special staff to assist in the investigation.
- (d) Delegation. The committee may delegate duties under this rule in its discretion to subcommittees, to staff members, or to individual committee members. The authority to exercise the committee 's subpoena powers under 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(9)(A) and 38 U.S.C. § 7253(g) may be delegated only to the presiding officer. In the case of failure to comply with such subpoena, the judicial council or special committee may institute a contempt proceeding consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 332(d) and 38 U.S.C. § 7265(a).
- (e) Report. The committee will file with the judicial council a comprehensive report of its investigation, including findings of the investigation and the committee's recommendations for council action. Any finding adverse to the judge complained about will be based on evidence in the record. The report will be accompanied by a statement of the vote by which it was adopted, any separate or dissenting statements of committee members, and the record of any hearing held pursuant to Rule 11.
- (f) Voting. All actions of the committee will be by vote of a majority of all members of the committee.

RULE 11. CONDUCT OF HEARINGS BY SPECIAL COMMITTEE

- (a) Purpose of hearings. The committee may hold hearings to take testimony and receive other evidence, to hear argument, or both. If the committee is investigating allegations against more than one judge, it may, in its discretion, hold a joint hearing or separate hearings. See Rule 16.
- (b) Notice to judge complained about. The judge complained about will be given adequate advance notice in writing by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, of any hearing to be held, its purposes, and the names of any witnesses whom the committee intends to call. The judge complained about will also be provided with the text of any statements that have been taken from such witnesses. The judge complained about may at any time suggest additional witnesses to the committee.

- (c) Committee witnesses. All persons who are believed to have substantial information to offer will be called as committee witnesses. Such witnesses may include the complainant and the judge complained about. The witnesses will be questioned by committee members, staff, or both. The judge complained about will be afforded the opportunity to cross-examine committee witnesses, personally or through counsel.
- (d) Witnesses called by the judge. The judge complained about is entitled to call witnesses and examine them personally or through counsel. Such witnesses may also be examined by committee members, staff, or both.
- (e) Witness fees. Witness fees will be paid as provided for in 28 U.S.C. § 1821 (as made applicable through 38 U.S.C. § 7253(g)(3)(A)).
- (f) Rules of evidence; oath. The Federal Rules of Evidence will apply to any evidentiary hearing except to the extent that departures from the adversarial format of a trial make them inappropriate. All testimony taken at such a hearing will be given under oath or affirmation.
- (g) Record and transcript. A record and transcript will be made of any hearing held.

RULE 12. RIGHTS OF JUDGE UNDER INVESTIGATION

- (a) Notice. The judge complained about is entitled to written notice of the investigation (Rule 4(f)), to written notice of expansion of the scope of an investigation (Rule 10(a)), and to written notice of any hearing (Rule 11(b)). All notices will be provided by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt.
- (b) Presentation of evidence. The judge complained about is entitled to a hearing, and has the right to present evidence and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents at the hearing. The judge complained about will be afforded the opportunity to cross-examine committee witnesses, personally or through counsel. Upon request of the judge, the Chief Judge or his designee will direct the Clerk of the Court to issue a subpoena in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 332(d)(1) (as made applicable through 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(9)(A)) and 38 U.S.C. § 7253(g)(1).
- (c) Presentation of argument. The judge complained about may submit written argument to the special committee at any time, and will be given a reasonable opportunity to present oral argument at an appropriate stage of the investigation.
- (d) Attendance at hearings. The judge complained about will have the right to attend any hearing held by the special committee and to receive copies of the transcript and any document introduced, as well as to receive a copy of any written argument submitted by the complainant to the committee.

- (e) Receipt of committee's report. The judge complained about will have the right to receive the report of the special committee at the time it is filed with the judicial council.
- (f) Representation by counsel. The judge complained about may be represented by counsel in the exercise of any of the rights enumerated in this Rule. The costs of such representation may be borne by the United States to the extent provided in Rule 14(h).

RULE 13. RIGHTS OF COMPLAINANT IN INVESTIGATION

- (a) Notice. The complainant is entitled to written notice by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, of the investigation as provided in Rule 4(f). Upon the filing of the special committee's report to the judicial council, the complainant will be notified by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, that the report has been filed and is before the council for decision. Although the complainant is not entitled to a copy of the report of the special committee, the judicial council may, in its discretion, release a copy of the report of the special committee to the complainant.
- (b) Opportunity to provide evidence and attend hearing. The complainant is entitled to be interviewed by a representative of the committee. If it is believed that the complainant has substantial information to offer, the complainant will be called as a witness at a hearing.
- (c) Presentation of argument. The complainant may submit written argument to the special committee at any time. In the discretion of the special committee, the complainant may be permitted to offer oral argument.
- (d) Representation by counsel. A complainant may submit written argument through counsel and, if permitted to offer oral argument, may do so through counsel.

Chapter V: Judicial Council Consideration of Recommendations of Special Committee

RULE 14. ACTION BY JUDICIAL COUNCIL

- (a) Purpose of judicial council consideration. After receipt of a report of a special committee, the judicial council will determine whether to dismiss the complaint, conclude the proceeding on the ground that corrective action has been taken or that intervening events make action unnecessary, refer the complaint to the Judicial Conference of the United States, or order corrective action.
- (b) Basis of council action. Subject to the rights of the judge complained about to submit argument to the council as provided in Rule 15(a), the council may take action on the basis of the report of the special committee and the record of any hearings held. If the council finds that the report and record provide an inadequate basis for decision, it may

- (1) order further investigation and a further report by the special committee or (2) conduct such additional investigation as it deems appropriate.
 - (c) Dismissal. The council will dismiss a complaint if it concludes--
 - (1) that the claimed conduct, even if the claim is true, is not "conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts" and does not indicate a mental or physical disability resulting in inability to discharge the duties of office;
 - (2) that the complaint is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling;
 - (3) that the facts on which the complaint is based have not been demonstrated; or
 - (4) that, under 28 U.S.C. § 372(c), the complaint is otherwise not appropriate for consideration.
- (d) Conclusion of proceeding on basis of corrective action taken. The council will conclude the complaint proceeding if it determines that appropriate action has already been taken to remedy the problem identified in the complaint, or that intervening events make such action unnecessary.
- (e) Referral to or Review by Judicial Conference of the United States. The judicial council may, in its discretion, refer a complaint to the Judicial Conference of the United States with the council's recommendations for action. The council must refer such a complaint to the Judicial Conference if the council determines that a judge may have engaged in conduct that might constitute ground for removal from office by the President of the United States under 38 U.S.C. § 7253(f)(1). The judge complained about or the complainant may seek review of the council's action by the Judicial Conference.
- (f) Order of corrective action. If the complaint is not disposed of under paragraphs (c) through (e) of this rule, the judicial council will take other action to assure the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the Court. Such action may include, among other measures--
 - (1) censuring or reprimanding the judge complained about, either by private communication or by public announcement;
 - (2) ordering that, for a fixed temporary period, no new cases be assigned to the judge complained about;
 - (3) [Reserved]

(4) [Reserved]

- (5) requesting the judge to retire voluntarily with the provision (if necessary) that ordinary length-of-service requirements will be waived; and
- (6) In the case of a judge who is eligible to retire but does not do so, certifying the disability of the judge under 28 U.S.C. § 372(b) so that a replacement judge may be appointed.
- (g) Combination of actions. Referral of a complaint to the Judicial Conference of the United States under paragraph (e) of this Rule will not preclude the council from simultaneously taking such other action under paragraph (f) as is within its power.
- (h) Recommendation about fees. Upon the request of a judge complained about, the judicial council may, as provided for in 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(16) (as made applicable through 38 U.S.C. § 7253(g)(3)(B)), if the complaint has been finally dismissed, direct that reimbursement, from funds appropriated to the Court, be made for those reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred by that judge during the investigation, which would not have been incurred but for the requirements of 38 U.S.C. § 7253(g), 28 U.S.C. § 372(c), and these Rules.
- (i) Notice of action of judicial council. Council action will be by written order. Unless the council finds that, for extraordinary reasons, it would be contrary to the interests of justice, the order will be accompanied by a memorandum setting forth the factual determinations on which it is based and the reasons for the council action. The memorandum will not include the name of the complainant or of the judge complained about. The order and the supporting memorandum will be provided to the complainant, the judge complained about, and all members of the council. However, if the complaint has been referred to the Judicial Conference of the United States pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Rule and the council determines that disclosure would be contrary to the interests of justice, such disclosure need not be made. The complainant and the judge complained about will be notified of the right to seek review of the judicial council's decision by the Judicial Conference of the United States and of the procedure for filing a petition for review.
- (j) Public availability of council action. Materials related to the council's action will be made public at the time and in the manner set forth in Rule 17.

RULE 15. PROCEDURES FOR JUDICIAL COUNCIL CONSIDERATION OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

(a) Rights of judge complained about. Within ten days after the filing of the report of a special committee, the judge complained about may address a written response to all members of the judicial council. The judge complained about will also be given an opportunity to present oral argument to the council, personally or through counsel, and may move for the council to conduct an investigation under paragraph (b), including receiving evidence submitted by the judge. The judge complained about may not otherwise communicate with council members about the matter, either orally or in writing.

- (b) Conduct of additional investigation by council. If the judicial council decides to conduct additional investigation, the complainant and judge complained about will be given adequate prior notice, by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, in writing of that decision and of the general scope and purpose of the additional investigation. The conduct of the investigation will be generally in accordance with the procedures set forth in Rules 10 through 13 for the conduct of an investigation by a special committee. However, if hearings are held, the council may limit testimony to avoid unnecessary repetition of testimony presented before the special committee.
- (c) Voting. Council action will be taken by a majority of those members of the council who are not disqualified.

Chapter VI: Miscellaneous Rules

RULE 16. CONFIDENTIALITY

- (a) General rule. Consideration of a complaint by the Chief Judge, a special master, a special committee, or the judicial council will be treated as confidential business, and information about such consideration will not be disclosed by any judge or employee of the Court or any person who records or transcribes testimony, except in accordance with these Rules.
- (b) Files. All files related to complaints of misconduct or disability, whether maintained by the Clerk of the Court, the Chief Judge, a special master, members of a special committee, members of the judicial council, or staff, and whether or not the complaint was accepted for filing, will be maintained separate and apart from all other files and records, with appropriate security precautions to ensure confidentiality.
- (c) Disclosure in memoranda of reasons. Memoranda supporting orders of the Chief Judge or the judicial council, and dissenting opinions or separate statements of members of the council, may contain such information and exhibits as the authors deem appropriate, and such information and exhibits may be made public pursuant to Rule 17.
- (d) Availability to Judicial Conference of the United States. In the event that a complaint is referred under Rule 14(e) to the Judicial Conference of the United States, the Clerk will provide the Judicial Conference with copies of the report of the special committee and any other documents and records that were before the judicial council at the time of its determination. Upon request of the Judicial Conference or its Committee to Review Circuit Council Conduct and Disability Orders, in connection with their consideration of a referred complaint or a petition described in 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(10) for review of a council order, the Clerk will furnish any other records related to the investigation.

(e) [Reserved]

- (f) Removal proceedings. The judicial council may release to the President of the United States any materials that are believed necessary to a removal proceeding conducted by the President under 38 U.S.C. § 7253(f).
- (g) Consent of judge complained about. Any materials from the files may be disclosed to any person upon the written consent of both the judge complained about and the Chief Judge. The Chief Judge may require that the identity of the complainant be shielded in any materials disclosed.
- (h) Disclosure by judicial council in special circumstances. The judicial council may authorize disclosure of information about the consideration of a complaint, including the papers, documents, and transcripts relating to the investigation, to the extent that the council concludes that such disclosure is justified by special circumstances and is not prohibited by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 372(c)(14).
- (i) Disclosure of identity by judge complained about. Nothing in this rule will preclude the judge complained about from acknowledging that he or she is the judge referred to in documents made public pursuant to Rule 17.

RULE 17. PUBLIC AVAILABILITY OF DECISIONS

- (a) General rule. A docket-sheet record of orders of the Chief Judge and the judicial council and the texts of any memoranda supporting such orders and any dissenting opinions or separate statements by members of the judicial council will be made public when final action on the complaint has been taken and is no longer subject to review.
 - (1) If the complaint is finally disposed of without appointment of a special committee, or if it is disposed of by council order dismissing the complaint for reasons other than mootness or because intervening events have made action on the complaint unnecessary (as to which, see paragraph (4), below), the publicly available materials will not disclose the name of the judge complained about without his or her consent.
 - (2) If the complaint is finally disposed of, pursuant to rule 14(f), by censure or reprimand by means of private communication, the publicly available materials will not disclose either the name of the judge complained about or the text of the reprimand.

- (3) If the complaint is finally disposed of by any other action taken pursuant to Rule 14(d) or (f), the text of the dispositive order will be included in the materials made public, and the name of the judge complained about will be disclosed.
- (4) If the complaint is dismissed as moot, or because intervening events have made action on the complaint unnecessary, at any time after the appointment of a special committee, the judicial council will determine whether the name of the judge complained about is to be disclosed.

The name of the complainant will not be disclosed in materials made public under this rule unless the Chief Judge orders such disclosure.

- (b) Manner of making public. The records referred to in paragraph (a) will be made public by placing them in a publicly accessible file in the office of the Clerk of the Court at 625 Indiana Avenue, N.W., Suite 900, Washington, D.C. 20004-2950. The Clerk will send copies of the publicly available materials to the Federal Judicial Center, One Columbus Circle, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002, where such materials will also be available for public inspection. In cases in which memoranda appear to have precedential value, the Chief Judge may cause them to be published in a manner consistent with subsection (a) of this Rule.
- (c) Decisions of Judicial Conference standing committee. To the extent consistent with the policy of the Judicial Conference Committee to Review Circuit Council Conduct and Disability Orders, opinions of that Committee about complaints arising from this Court will also be made available to the public in the office of the Clerk.
- (d) Special rule for decisions of judicial council. When the judicial council has taken final action on the basis of a report of a special Committee, and no petition for review has been filed with the Judicial Conference of the United States within thirty days after the council's action, the materials referred to in paragraph (a) of this Rule will be made public in accordance with this rule as if there were no further right of review.
- (e) Complaints referred to Judicial Conference of the United States. If a complaint is referred to the Judicial Conference of the United States pursuant to Rule 14(e) and the judicial council does not take further action under Rule 14(f) and (g), materials relating to the complaint will be made public only as may be ordered by the Judicial Conference.

RULE 18. DISQUALIFICATION

(a) Complainant. If the complaint is filed by a judge, that judge will be disqualified from participation in any consideration of the complaint except to the extent that these Rules provide for participation by a complainant. If the Chief Judge has identified a complaint under rule 2(j), he or she will not be automatically disqualified from participating in the consideration of the complaint but may consider in his or her discretion whether the circumstances warrant disqualification.

- (b) Judge complained about. A judge complained about whose conduct is the subject of a complaint will be disqualified from participating in any consideration of the complaint except to the extent that these Rules provide for participation by a judge complained about.
- (c) Disqualification of Chief Judge on consideration of petition for review of Chief Judge's order. If a petition for review of a Chief Judge's order dismissing a complaint or concluding a proceeding is filed with the judicial council pursuant to Rule 5, the Chief Judge will not participate in the council's consideration of the petition. In such a case, the Chief Judge may address a written communication to the members of the judicial council, with copies provided, by personal delivery, or certified or registered mail, with return receipt, to the complainant and to the judge complained about. The Chief Judge may otherwise not communicate with individual council members about the matter, either orally or in writing.
- (d) Member of special committee not disqualified. A member of the judicial council who is appointed to a special committee will not be disqualified from participating in council consideration of the committee's report.
- (e) Judge under investigation. Upon appointment of a special committee, the judge complained about will automatically be disqualified from serving on (1) any special committee appointed under Rule 4(e), (2) the judicial council, (3) the Judicial Conference of the United States, and (4) the Committee to Review Circuit Council Conduct and Disability orders of the Judicial Conference of the United States. The disqualification will continue until all proceedings regarding the complaint are finally terminated, with no further right of review. The proceedings will be deemed terminated thirty days after the final action of the judicial council.
- (f) Substitute for disqualified Chief Judge. If the Chief Judge is disqualified from participating in consideration of any matter under these Rules, the duties and responsibilities of the Chief Judge under these Rules will be assigned to the associate judge in regular active service who is the most senior in date of commission of those who are not disqualified.

RULE 19. WITHDRAWAL OF COMPLAINTS AND PETITIONS FOR REVIEW

- (a) Complaint pending before Chief Judge. A complaint that is before the Chief Judge for a decision under Rule 4 may be withdrawn by the complainant with the consent of the Chief Judge.
- (b) Complaint pending before special committee or judicial council. After a complaint has been referred to a special committee for investigation, the complaint may be withdrawn by the complainant only with the consent of both (1) the judge complained about and (2) the special committee (before its report has been filed) or the judicial council.

(c) Petition for review of Chief Judge's disposition. A petition to the judicial council for review of the Chief Judge's disposition of a complaint may be withdrawn by the petitioner at any time before the judicial council acts on the petition.

RULE 20. NON-EXCLUSIVITY

The availability of the complaint procedure under these Rules will not preclude the Chief Judge or the judicial council from considering any information that may come to their attention suggesting that a judge has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the Court or is unable to discharge all the duties of office by reason of disability.

RULE 21. AVAILABILITY OF RULES AND FORMS

These Rules and copies of the complaint form prescribed by Rule 2 will be available without charge in the office of the Clerk of the Court, 625 Indiana Avenue, Suite 900, Washington, D.C. 20004-2950.

RULE 22. EFFECTIVE DATE

These Rules apply to complaints filed on or after August 6, 1991, and to all complaints pending as of that date.

RULE 23. ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The advisory committee appointed by the Court, consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 2077(b), for the study of rules of practice and internal operating procedures shall also constitute the advisory committee for the study of these Rules, and shall make any appropriate recommendations to the judicial council of the Court concerning these Rules.
