

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS SEEKS VOLUNTEERS FOR COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS AND PRACTICE

The United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims is now considering applications to serve on the Court's Committee on Admission and Practice.

The Committee, governed by Rule 2 of the Court's Rules of Admissions and Practice (Rules), investigates allegations of attorney misconduct referred to it by the Court.

Pursuant to order of the Court, the Committee on Admission and Practice performs investigations, holds hearings, and makes recommendations to the Court regarding disciplinary grievances filed against attorneys and other practitioners who appear before the Court. The Committee is composed of nine members who generally sit in panels of three to review individual grievances referred to them. Primarily due to expiring terms, the Committee currently has three vacancies.

Interested parties should submit a statement of interest via email with a resume attached to the Clerk of the Court, Gregory O. Block, at GBlock@uscourts.cavc.gov. Although statements of interest are accepted on an ongoing basis, in light of the new vacancies, interested parties are requested to promptly submit a statement of interest and resume.

Please direct questions to the Court's General Counsel at csklar@uscourts.cavc.gov. Additionally, the Rules are on the Court's website and current Committee Members may be contacted at the addresses provided on the Court's website at <http://www.uscourts.cavc.gov/cap.php>.
